MANCHESTER ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL CLUB

Bell's Life 20/11/75 P.8:"This club has been formed in Manchester after a deal of prognostications of failure on the part of the Rugby Unionists,who were to a man dead against such rules;but nevertheless,a few northern athletes"laid their hands together and conspired".The result being, after a month's hard and dry preliminaries,a good code of rules were presented to the Cottonopolis athletes and the public in general...and between thirty and forty members were enrolled at two committee meetings,and everything bids fair for the club's ultimate success.The opening game took place last Saturday,the 13th inst.,on the club ground near the Alexandra Park,and the weather was all that could be expectd,namely,a "thorough soaker",the natives of that beautiful "watering" place being thoroughly habituated to nothing but rain the last six weeks,with the exception of two days,being scarcely anything but wet,wet,wet,from morning to night.Amongst the members we notice the name of Mr Pickering,of hurdle-racing fame,who,we believe,has years ago been celebrated as an Association player,and two Nottingham gentlemen,who did good service for the town's club a couple of seasons ago."

SIX HOURS MATCH (10 am – 4pm)(Under the auspices of the Harrow Chequers Club):

HANWELL SIDE OF LONDON 24 COLNEY HATCH SIDE OF LONDON 24

"...it would be painful to say how many players were on the ground at the first moment of play,but if they afterwards increased to more than six on each side,it can only have been the expedient of including among the players a young gentleman in an Ulster coat,who obligingly kept goal for each of the sides in turn."

"As regards goals,we believe that for Colney Hatch Stratford(a very promising candidate) secured the most goals,with Colbeck not far behind him.For Hanwell,Macan and Lang pretty well divided the honours.

"At four o'clock the numbers playing were five on one side and four on the other,the names being for Colney Hatch,C.Colbeck,A.Whitaker,Stratford,E.Whitaker-not to mention the Ulster goalkeeper;for Hanwell,E.E.Bowen,W.Giles,J.H.Lang,G.Macan,and G.M.Smith."

MAIDENHEAD v SOUTH NORWOOD

Maidenhead Advertiser 2/2/76 P.3:"The match arranged for Saturday last was "South Norwood v Maidenhead",on the home ground.Maidenhead beat South Norwood on their own ground in the previous match,by two goals to one.It was expected,therefore,that they would bring down a strong team to retrieve their laurels,and the day being exceptionally fine,a good game was expected on all hands.But in the course of the morning it was intimated that the visitors had been unable to get a team together,and to the great disappointment of lovers of football,the match had to be postponed. There was,however, a well-sustained club practice."

Maidenhead Advertiser 2/2/76 P.3:

MA:"This match was played yesterday,on the home ground,and proved of keen interest.The visitors brought a strong team,and it at first appered that fortune was on their side,for at the commencement they played well up to the Maidenhead goal,and after several tries succeeded in scoring.From this time the Maidenhead team played in much better form,and made several remarkably close shots at the visitors' fortress,Messrs Vardy,W.Nicholson,Hebbes,and Burnham,in particular,distinguishing themselves.No absolute success,however,was achieved until half-time,when,on a change of ends,the Twyford team,in turn,found themselves penned.Messrs Hebbes,F.W.Nicholson,Burnham,and Walker pressed vigorously to the front,and after one or two ineffectual kicks,the ball was cleanly passed through.Encouraged by this exploit the Maidenhead team returned to the attack with new ardour,whilst the visitors drew nearer home the best of their forces,and there made a stubborn stand,occasionally repelling their assailants,and even making sudden incursions into their territory.The latter,however,returned again and again to the charge,and presently obtained a second goal,kicked by Mackie.the play was continued about a quarter of an hour longer,but without further result,Maidenhead winning by two goals to one.The match occupied an hour and a half,and was well contested throughout."

MAIDENHEAD 2 (R.Nicholson,C.Prior) HENLEY 0 (At Maidenhead)(H.T.1-0)

Maidenhead Advertiser 23/2/76 P.3(No Report found in Henley Advertiser):

NEW:

MA:"The Henley Club sent over on Wednesday a team complete save as to one member, and the vacancy was filled by Hammond, and a spirited match was the result. The ground was somewhat slippery, and a strong wind carried the ball over to the brook. The play was therefore, pretty much, confined to that part of the ground, and only occasionally got into the middle. During the first half of the match Maidenhead played up hill, and after several tries succeeded in scoring a goal, kicked by R. Nicholson. After a change of ends the Henley men were placed almost entirely on the defensive, and for some time managed to avert a further disaster. Owthwaite and his lieutenants strove earnestly to preserve their fortress, and a fine run down by W. Nicholson was rendered abortive, as were also several well-intended kicks by Prior. The latter, however, eventually succeeded in placing another goal to the credit of the Maidenhead club, and after a further ten minutes' play the latter were victors, by two goals to none."

N.B.No first match found: postponed 4/12/75 match and this game had been scheduled for 5/2/76

Maidenhead Advertiser 1/3/76 P.3/Uxbridge Gazette 26/2/76 P.4/Sporting Life 26/2/76 P.4/Field
26/2/76 P.240:

MA: "The afternoon was dry, but cold, and a biting wind drove the few spectators to the shelter of the pavilion and the elm tree. The visitors brought over a strong team, whereas the Maidenhead Club, though within their own demain, could barely muster a side, and it was evident that though their force included the veterans Vardy, W.Nicholson, Goulden, Hebbes, and Burnham, they were, on the whole, inferior to their opponents. Play commenced late, at about four o'clock, and the Southall men at once made a spirited attack on the upper goal, which was defended by Maidenhead. But the ball was carried out of bounds by a nor-westerly gale, and on being again thrown in, was carried down by Maidenhead. Again and again it flew before the wind, and once was left fairly afloat in the brook."

P.328:

SDT:"The result of this contest will long be remembered in the annals of our Football Association as one of the most brilliant performances achieved by the Sheffield Club.The vanquished were by no means an indifferent team;indeed it was supposed to be equal to any metropolitan team which has yet visited Bramall lane.Doubtless the defection of Bridges,added to the fact that their best player,Kinnaird,was partially disabled,might somewhat influence the result.But under any circumstances,the the splendid concerted play of the Sheffields to and for each other,and that almost entire absence of selfishness,must ultimately have earned the reward it merited."

"The back play of Birley and Bridges,whilst he stayed,was particularly telling and effective,as was also that of Stratford,who afterwards took Bridges' place.Bevington,Smith,Buchanan,and the two Barlows also rendered effective service for their side.The severe charge given to Kenrick early on took much of the steam out of him at start, nevertheless he struggled on manfully. Kinnaird's lameness prevented him performing so brilliantly as he has frequently done before. The play all round on the Sheffield side was most highly commendable, but that of Mosforth and Sorby cannot be too highly praised. The last named, for a colt, did a wonderful performance."

SM"soon after the last goal Bridges, one of the London backs, had to retire from a severe kick."
+(the second)

SM:"The only alterations in the advertised teams were those of Bridges and F.T.Barlow, who played in place of Rawson and Maynard for London."
